Sporting clays: Fox Twp. wins club championship

Fox Township Sportsmen's Club claimed the club championship as the Tri-County Sporting Clays League completed its 18th season March 6.

Fox had a cumulative average of 37.92 (out of 50). The runner-up club with a cumulative average of 37.09 was the Bradford Gun Club. Kane Fish & Game Club was third with a 36.02 and Kalbfus Rod & Gun Club had an average of 34.34.

Attendance at the weekly league shoots averaged 97 shooters.

On March 19, the league held its annual Moe Goepfert Memorial Shoot and awards banquet at the Bradford Gun Club.

This memorial shoot honors Goepfert, who was a co-founder and guiding force of the league in its early years. This unique shoot requires the participants to shoot 25 skeet targets, 25 trap targets (from the 23-yard line) and 50 sporting clays targets.

The winner of the memorial shoot was Justin Lorenzo from Kane with a score of 91 out of 100. Lorenzo recorded 24 out of 25 in skeet, 20 out of 25 in trap and 47 out of 50 in sporting clays.

Taking the runner-up spot with a 90 was Chris Kline of Fox Township.

In the Junior division, Alec Meyer of Kalbfus was high with a 79 out of 100. The Junior runner-up spot was claimed by Logan Bobenreith of Fox Township with a 71.

The Bradford Gun Club is open year round Wednesdays from 4 to 8 p.m. and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. for trap, skeet, 5 Stand and sporting clays practice.

The kitchen is open during regular operating hours and the public is always welcome. Memberships are available.

On March 25-26, the BGC will hold its annual Good Friday registered trap shoot. The office will open both days at 9 a.m. and the day's first event will begin at 10 a.m.
