Six shooters finished with perfect 25s while Youngsville, Sheffield and Corry earned team wins in Week 5 of the Warren County High School Trap League.

Youngsville handed Warren Blue its first loss of the season, 167-165. Nathan Lehman and Seth Ecelberger shot 25s for the Eagles while Christian Blick and Cody Haight added 24s. Josh Cassatt led Warren Blue with a 25 while Matthew McDunn and John Fankhouser finished one back at 24.

Nate Christensen, Ross Fadale and Drew Higby all shot 24s to lead Sheffield over Tidioute, 163-145. Gus Martin shot his first 25 of the year and Mike Ziegler added a 24 for Tidioute.

Corry beat Eisenhower, 162-158, behind 24s from Tagen Dingfelder and Logan Muir. Greg Lindsey, Chase Stalmer and Matt Brundage all had 23s for Corry while Dominick Diethrick's 25 and Jeremy Carlson's 24 led Eisenhower.

Warren White's Andrew Egger led his team on a bye week with a 25 and Justin Conarro finished with a 24. Logan Galloway and Connor Rosborough both had 23s for White, which finished with a team score of 160.

Warren Blue's Callie Hampson shot a 22, making her this week's high lady. Warren Blue, Sheffield and Corry were winners in their junior varsity matches.
